Post Communion Prayer
 Eternal Father, we thank you for nourishing us with these heavenly gifts:

 build us up in hope,
 and help us grow in love;
 for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Please turn off mobile phones before the service starts. We have a hearing loop installed. Please adjust your hearing aid accordingly.

Collect

God, the strength of all those who put their trust in you, mercifully accept our prayers and, because through the weakness of our mortal nature we can do no good thing without you, grant us the help of your grace, that in the keeping of your commandments we may please you both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Looking Forward –

Next weekend I shall be present at the ordination as Deacon of Gaynor Ford: someone who has attended St Helena's on many occasions, and whom we shall see again in the Autumn. The following week Geoff and Deb will be present for the blessing of Fr Sean Semple's marriage, at his parish in the UK. Both of these occasions bear witness to the importance we attach to our extended family of swallows and friends. We remember them in our prayers. We encourage them to take part in our services when they are here as readers or intercessors. Indeed, we are considering publishing a special insert to our Harvest or Christmas Pastoral Letter, describing some of the year's events at the church, specifically aimed at those members of the extended family who download the Pastoral Letter from the website.

The next book sale will be on June 28th, and this will be the last before the Summer. These sales have been hugely successful in our whole mission. They have provided a service; they have given opportunity for people who do not attend church to get to know us informally; they have provided a point at which some people, isolated as carers, can be sure of speaking to a member of the clergy, or receive other support, and it gives us yet another opportunity to enjoy working together with common purpose. They have also raised a substantial amount of income. Help is always welcome. On June 29th, St Peter's Day, there will be a Quiet Service at 11.
