Post Communion Prayer

Living God, who for our redemption gave your only-begotten Son to the death of the cross,
 and by his glorious resurrection
 have delivered us from the power of our enemy:
 grant us so to die daily to sin,
 that we may evermore live with him in the joy of his
 risen life;
 through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

St Helena's Anglican Church

1st April, 2018

Welcome to St Helena's in the name of Christ.
If you are a baptised Christian of any tradition, you are invited to receive Communion.
We will be having coffee in the courtyard after the service, please join us.

Collect

Lord of all life and power,
 who through the mighty resurrection of your Son
 overcame the old order of sin and death
 to make all things new in him:
 grant that we, being dead to sin
 and alive to you in Jesus Christ,
 may reign with him in glory;
 to whom with you and the Holy Spirit
 be praise and honour, glory and might,
 now and in all eternity. Amen

Please turn off mobile phones before the service starts. We have a hearing loop installed. Please adjust your hearing aid accordingly.

Looking Forward –

A Happy Easter to everyone. In our service this morning we begin with the final station of the cross, Jesus is risen from the grave, and the cross which has symbolised various kinds of evil, avarice and cruelty throughout the season of Lent is today to be transformed to a place of flowers, beauty and celebration as we place lowers at its foot when we return from the altar rail. This evening we have Songs of Praise at our Pervolia base (opposite the parish church). The service begins at 6.30pm. Do come along.

This week, Luncheon Club meets on Wednesday, when the ten minute speaker will be Nicola Smith from the Freedom Dolls Initiative – the people who make the dolls we have been selling in church, and whose concern is trafficked and abused women. Please give your names to Liz. Everyone is welcome to come along. Dates for forthcoming meetings of various kinds can be found on the back of the Easter Pastoral Letter. Please take a copy if you have not had one. They are free, at the back of the church.

In our Council Meeting this week, there was discussion about alterations to the church that will enable us to have a toilet suitable for use by disabled people, an additional toilet and a new vestry. Details are to be found in the draft Minutes, copies of which are available. The next Spirituality Day here will be on 19th April. Details are posted in the porch.
