Post Communion Prayer

Eternal Father,
 we thank you for nourishing us
 with these heavenly gifts.
 May our communion strengthen us in faith,
 build us up in hope,
 and make us grow in love;
 for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

3rd June, 2018

 of Christ.

Collect

God, the strength of all those who put their trust in you:
 Mercifully accept our prayers and,
 because through the weakness of our mortal nature
 we can do no good thing without you,
 grant us the help of your grace,
 that in the keeping of your commandments
 we may please you,
 both in will and deed;
 through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Please turn off mobile phones before the service starts. We have a hearing loop installed. Please adjust your hearing aid accordingly.

Looking Forward –

Today, John is celebrating in St Andrew's Church, Kyrenia as the parish priest there is on extended sick leave. I will be celebrating today, but we are again joined by Peter Day on the final Sunday of his placement with us in preparation for his ordination as a Deacon on 7th July. Peter will lead the liturgy of the Word this morning.

All the parishes on the island were represented at a meeting last Tuesday to discuss our island-wide wedding ministry. It was interesting to gain different viewpoints from the other parishes and from the Diocese, and also to see where the Cyprus Archdeaconry may be able to develop a more joined-up approach to how we manage weddings across the island and, indeed, to try to publicise the availability of Cyprus Church weddings more widely, especially in the UK wedding exhibitions.

On Thursday at 2pm, there will be the fifth session (of six) of the Pilgrim course, here in Church. This course seeks to help develop individual spirituality and to give an insight into how we can connect personally with God. In particular during this group of sessions, we are looking at our active participation in the Eucharist and what that may mean for us all from a spiritual perspective. I recommend it to anyone who seeks to develop themselves further in this way. It doesn't matter if you haven't attended previous Pilgrim sessions as each seeks to some degree to be stand-alone.
