Post Communion Prayer

God of our pilgrimage,
you have led us to the living water:
refresh and sustain us
as we go forward on our journey,
in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

St Helena's Anglican Church

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Amen.

28th July,
2019

Welcome to St Helena's in the name of Christ.

If you are a baptised Christian of any tradition, you are invited to receive Communion. If you would like a blessing, please come to the altar rail with your service book. We will be having coffee in the courtyard after the service, please join us.

Collect

Merciful God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as pass our understanding:
pour into our hearts such love toward you that we, loving you in and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Looking Forward –

Today is my last service here at St Helena's and I want to take this semi-formal opportunity to thank everyone who has been part of the work here during my time 'on watch' for the contribution you and they have made. I want to thank those whose work is unobtrusive as well as those whose work is evident, and especially I want to thank you for your support, your friendship, your hospitality and your prayers during difficult times. I have learned much from you and I hope to take the experience of ministry here as a resource to my continuing role as Director of Ministry for the Diocese for the next two years. Although I shall have a Diocesan role and shall be in Larnaca fairly frequently, I shall not, by a convention with which I agree, be part of the St Helena's congregation. Nevertheless I look forward to hearing news of you all, through Archdeacon Christopher, and hearing great things about how the mission of the church is moving forward here.

My own 'farewell tour' continues next week at the cathedral, (where I am to be installed as a canon on November 3rd), and the following week, on August 7th I leave the Vicarage. I believe Christopher and Anne will be moving in very soon afterwards, so perhaps once again you will all be getting lost in Aradippou! I shall be returning to our house in Wales, and if you are anywhere in the vicinity of Carmarthenshire I shall always be pleased to see you. My email address remains the same: archdeaconjohn32@gmail.com, and my landline telephone number will be +44 1267 267 350. If, as I hope, there are those who want to contact me as Director of Ministry because they sense a vocation, my Cyprus number will remain the same -99658147.

Every blessing, on behalf of myself and Sue, to you all.

Ven Dr John Holdsworth, Parish Priest

Please pray for Dr John Holdsworth as he, with others, promotes a culture of learning, vocation, and discernment in the diocese.

Pray also for Paphos: the Parish has 3 places of worship in Paphos, Tala and Prodromi, which serves the town of Polis, the resort of Latchi and surrounding villages.

Advance notice: there will be a retreat at St George's Church in Troodos on 31st August. Please see the poster in the porch if you are interested.

This morning's readings: Hosea 1: 2-10
